What’s New in the ArcGIS API for Silverlight

Rex Hansen (@rex_hansen)
Agenda

- Platform
- What’s New
- Road Ahead
Microsoft’s Silverlight Platform

- Web client for desktop browsers
- Silverlight 5
- Support latest desktop platforms\browsers
  - Windows 8, Windows Server 2012, IE10
- Support latest IDEs
  - Visual Studio 2012
  - Blend for Visual Studio 2012 (Update 2)
ArcGIS API for Silverlight

- Powerful Web Mapping API
- Visualization with touch enabled Map control
- Toolkit to support use of map and data
- Use geospatial services
- Graphics and Editing
- Tasks
- Support for Portals & ArcGIS Online organizations
What’s New in 3.0 - June 2012

- New ArcGIS Server 10.1 functionality
  - Enhancements to:
    - Map services
    - Feature services
    - Image Services
    - Print service
    - Uploads
- Portal API
- IdentityManager
What’s New in 3.1 - January 2013

• Visual Studio 2012
• World Geocode Service
• ArcGISWebClient
• CsvLayer, OpenStreetMap
• Geometry To\From JSON
• Enhancements to:
  - ArcGIS Server 10.1 sp1
  - ArcGIS Online and Portal for ArcGIS

* Assembly version, 10.1.1 = 3.1
ArcGIS Viewer for Silverlight

- API and Viewer will be released concurrently
- New in 3.1
  - Sign in for secure services
  - Query Related Records tool
  - Editor Tracking and ownership-based access support
  - Visual Studio 2012 integration
  - Windows 8 support

- Configuring and Customizing ArcGIS Viewer for Silverlight
  - Wed 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM Primrose C\D
- What’s New
- Futures
Road Ahead

- NuGet packages coming soon!
- Support for Silverlight 5 only
- Developers.arcgis.com, GitHub
- New features
  - Async, OAuth, Portal, Geoenrichment, Analytics, Geotriggers
- Release schedule
- XAML vs JavaScript
- Windows 8
- Windows Store and Windows Phone SDKs
Questions?

Please fill out your session surveys

www.esri.com/devsummit

1. Enter the key phase from the session title
2. Select session
3. Enter Offering ID: 223

http://esri.github.com/#Silverlight
Understanding our world.