

Monitoring and Policing Crowdsourced Data

Goals of the workshop:

- Present the experience of the Esri Technical Marketing group in filtering, monitoring, and policing crowdsourced data.
- Explore common problems inherent to gathering geospatial data from the public
- Explore possible solutions to the above problems

Major topics covered:

- Accessing Social Media APIs
- Technology and methods for capturing User-Generated content
- Client side data filtering
- Back-end data verification