Introduction to ArcGIS for Crash Safety Management

Goals of the workshop

- Explain what the ArcGIS System can do for crash safety data managers
- Introduce the maps and applications available on the Resource Center, and understand how to use these templates
- Describe data management workflows and components

Major topics covered

- General overview of crash safety management
- Field data collection of crash location and information
- Data management strategies and techniques
- Crash safety analysis tools and methodology
- Reporting and presenting analysis results to your specific audience
- Dynamic conversation of best practices, trends, and challenges