

UC

Tracking Narcotics using GIS

Elise Diaz

United States Postal Service – Office of Inspector General

Office of Inspector General

You don't have to be a genius to know delaying, stealing or throwing away mail is wrong . . .

It's also a felony. You could lose your job and go to jail. To report fraud, theft and misconduct: Call 1-888-USPS-OIG E-mail HOTLINE@uspsolg.gov www.uspsolg.gov

Promoting Integrity and Accountability

When someone does the wrong thing... do the right thing.

Report Workers' Compensation Fraud to the Office of Inspector General

888-USPS-OIG
888-877-7644
www.uspsolg.gov

Help us pick out the bad apples.

No matter how hard you work, you can't overcome those who cheat or steal from the U.S. Postal Service. These bad apples make mail more expensive — something we can't afford.

We need your help. Report postal crimes or misconduct.

1-888-USPS-OIG
www.uspsolg.gov

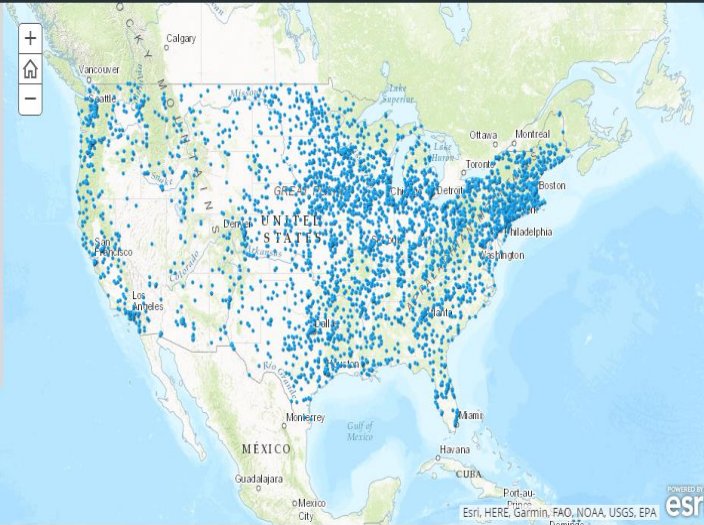

Tracking Narcotics

A story map

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5

Postal Service and GIS

- 31,585 Post Offices
- 156.1 Million Delivery Points
- 229,104 Delivery Routes

Narcotics Story Maps

Questions?

