Coordinating Efforts in a Decentralized Environment

Melissa Northey, GISP
City of Ocala, FL
Where is your GIS?
Communication

User Community Meetings

G-I-Success Meeting
April 11th, 2019
1:30pm - 3:00pm

IT Training Room (Fleet – upstairs) – Complex

- Introductions
- Software/Status Updates – Melissa Northev, IT
  - “M drive” cleanup/migration from “G” drive
  - ArcGIS Enterprise – Portal 10.6.1 testing
  - SQL 2016
    - New Citizen’s Reporting App
- Learning Plans
  - Ocala Online
  - Ocala Goes Pro
- ESR's Southeast User Conference – May 1st & 2nd
- Open floor
Communication

User Presentations
Communication

User Presentations
Communication

Open the Floor
Communication

Extras
Communication

Standardize
Communication

All Levels

- What GIS is and how it’s helping them
- Current Projects

Team Players
- Resources Needed

WATCH THE TECHY TALK
Communication

Soft Skills

Communication
Grit
Collaboration
Creativity
Confidence
Work Ethic
Time Management
Critical Thinking
Identify Your Champions

What is a Champion?

“Person who voluntarily takes extraordinary interest in the adoption, implementation, and success of a cause, policy, program, project, or product. He or she will typically try to force the idea through entrenched internal resistance to change, and will evangelize it throughout the organization. Also called change advocate, change agent, or idea champion.”

www.businessdictionary.com
Champions

User Community
Champions

Top Management
Champions

External Agencies
it’s like herding cats.

Communication
User Community Meetings
Technology

Champions
All levels